Crime and its Punishment.

The entire strength of the press of the cour try seems at this moment to be aroused on the subject of the laxing and inadequacy of punishsafeguards of the community against the commission of crime, and the unrestrained passions of the vicious, is the absolute certainty of punishment. The unavoidable certainty of retribusishment is indeed of more consequence than tive justice, is, indeed, of more consequence than the nature of it. There are those who bring steps into their aid with the suggestion of a comthe nature of it. There are those who bring forward good reasons for dispensing with the fearful penalty of capital punishment for the crime of murder. They may be right in their views: it still remains that whatever penalty of capital punishment for the crime of murder. They may be right in their views: it still remains that whatever penalty of capital punishment for the crime of murder. They may be right in their said at this moment to enjoy all the power of views: it still remains that whatever penalty of capital punishment for the crime of murder. They may be right in their said at this moment to enjoy all the power of place without its responsibility.

Solid Local Pulmer with defeat, he is unworthy of trust, and is native incompetent for the performance of his duties, or shows a willful and deliberate purpose to pervert and abuse the power with which he is invested.

They also report a resolution that he be forthmay be substituted for that of death, it lacks the their judgment, and mislead them in the comprehension of the true nature of the facts. To work has encouragement to look forward to "executive elemency," well knowing that a large number of sympathizing and afflicted friends, among whom sympanizing and afflicted friends, among whom will be sure to be found some of the most "substantial and influential citizens," to step between scutence and execution and recovering and of interposing friends, who will undertake to proand ultimately save him from the penalty he has incurred. It is time the community took this matter in hund, and insisted upon a reform in this loose method of enforcing the laws of the land. We should have less crime, fewer such inhuman scoundrels as Arrison and Loeffner and Stont. lewer such shocking occurrences as the recent outrageous murder of Gregory, if the sanction and supremacy of the law was imperatively maintained-if the penalty of its violation was wift and inevitable.

Because judgment against an evil work, said the wise judge of Israel, is not executed speedily, therefore the hearts of the sons of men are fully set in them to do evil. This is the natural con sequence of the apparent prevailing immunity from punishment; and that maudlin, miserable sympathy for the criminal that finds expression in motions and delays, new trials, arrests of judg-urent and petitions for relief and pardon. These permitted expedients are designed for the bene-tit of justice and the innocent; not surely for the imelioration of the merited fate, or the final cacape of the guilty.

JAMES B. CLAY .- About the most lumiliated and degraded man in the nation is the person whose name stands at the head of this paragraph. On the occasion of the serenade of the President, on Friday night, by the Democracy of ngton, in honor of the passage of the Kan sas bill, Mr. James B. Clay appears to have been present at the White House, in pleasant and confident confab with the reckless and unprincipled ealumniator of his illustrious father. Being called upon for a speech, as a matter of course,

"In the old time my name was often associated with this White House, where we now stand. Those times have gone. They are passed, and there is nothing to be realized beyond what we have at present-a Cloy, an humble follower in the ranks of the Democracy!"

What a spectacle! A son of Henry Clay standing on the steps of the White House, and boasting of his being "an humble follower in the ranks of the Democracy"-an humble follower in the ranks of a party that persecuted his glorious old father through life, and hunted him with blood hound malignity to his grave! Standing there, too, the gnest, the counsellor, and the supporter of the man who had done more than all others together, and that, too, by the basest slander and calumny, to defeat the honorable ambition of his father, and prevent his elevation to that very White House from the portico of which this re creant son has the shamelessness to avow himself "an humble follower in the ranks" of his father's bitterest and most implacable enemies. Really, we have rarely heard of any spectacle in late days, so humiliating and so revolting. it be that Mr. James B. Clay is destitute of even the semblance of sensibility? It would seem so. and we believe it is so. He has neither reverence nor respect, and has regard for his father's name and memory only in so far as he may be able to prostitute both to his own personal advantage. We both pity and despise a man so fallen, so degraded, so lost to filial reverence and to self-respect.

We suggest to Mr. James B. Clay that, having changed his politics and leagued himself with his father's enemies, he would do a just and a creditable thing to change his name. The name he bears was rendered too glorious and too illustrious by the father to be allowed to be tarnished and dishonored by the shameless renegadeism and recreancy of the son. Let him change it, or else, like the first of traitors, let him "go out and hang himself."—Richmond (Va.) Whig. ----

Neither at home nor abroad is there any improvement in the aspects of politics. The Derby Cabinet still hold their ground, but no conditions subject of the laxily and thadequacy of punishment for crime. The conferences of the European powers to settle the points left unadjusted after the Russian war are to commence, it is said, in Puris in the course of a fortnight. They have been postponed from time to time, owing to contests with regard to the matters that should be allowed to be troduced, but these are now alleged to have been all fixed upon. Very recently France and Russia wished to bring in the occupation of the island of Perim, but in that it may be presumed they have been foiled. Nevertheless, in some quar ters anticipations are entertained that great differchees and many heats will arise and there are ersons who deem it not improbable that the de sired pretexts for war will thus be manufactured

For the present it is understood the tone of the French Government is to be that of the most emonstrative friendship. This may be interpreted favorably or otherwise. The professions of Louis Napoleon in favor of the republic were never so strong as during the latter days that proceeded the coup d'etat, by which he made nimself dictator. Yesterday the Moniteur published a decree ordering 42,000 young soldier, who are still available under the conscription of 1856, to be called into active service. At a meet ing to day, however, of his political supporters, Lord Derby stated that our relations with France are perfect and cordial, and that everything in that respect is right. The last news from China, annou degradation of Yeh, and that a deputation the allied commanders met with a most gracious eception at Son tehon fon, a city of two or three millions of inhabitants, not far from Shanghae the Governor having promised to forward patches to the Emperor, at Pekin forthwith, has given much satisfaction. From India there are later telegraphic accounts to day, announcing the capture of Jhansi, and the defeat of ar army of 25 000 rebels outside, the flight of the garrison, the pursuit of them, and the cutting up of 3,000 The only place of bad news is, of a reverse sustained by a detachment of the Hon. C. S. Morehead, Governor of Kentucky, being absent from the State, and there being no Lieutenant Governor, by reason of the death of Hon. JAMES G. HARDY, the Constitution of Kentucky devolves the duties of the Executive Office upon the Speaker of the Senate, the Hon. JOHN Q. A. KING, who arrived in this city on Saturday last and entered upon the discharge of the same.

The Sag-Nicht papers in this State are certainly as eoolly impudent as they are personally abusive. The fuglemen of the party in Ken both voted against receiving Kansas into the Union as a slave State, and the organs eatehing up the false and absurd cry poured forth eolumn after column of vile personal abuse of those gentlemen, ealling them Abolitionists and saying that they had joined the Black Republicans in a crusade against the rights of the South. These papers declared that the Crittenden-Montgomery substitue refused admission to Kansas as a slave State and that it was a thoroughly Abolition doe ument. But now these same papers publish a di rcet contradiction of their own base misrcpre sentations, in admitting to their columns the speech delivered by English at the White House In this speech Mr. English taunts the Black Re publicans with having deserted the doctrines which they upheld before the people, that no more slave States should be admitted into the Union. He chuckles over the fact that the Re publicans had repudiated their obnoxious princi ples, and, in voting for the Crittenden substitutes had fully recognized the great principle of pop ular sovereignty-that the people of the new States shall have the right to settle the question of slavery, as well as all other questions of State policy, for themselves. He throws this inconsistency into the very teeth of the Black great principle-the assertion and operation of his own language:

"How inconsistent has been their course! At home they have professed eternal hostility to the extension of the institution of slavery; that Kan sas should be a free State, though every man, woman and child therein wished it to be other wise, and that under no circumstances were any ore slave States to be admitted into the Union That was substantially the platform upon which they stood in my own country and throughout the Northern States. But what have we seen recent-For mere party purposes we have seen then stultify themselves by voting to admit Kansas as a slave State, provided the people interested should de cide in favor of it. How different this from the position they have claimed to occupy before the people! Who can now believe in their sinceri

What more has the South ever demanded than this? Here is a distinct avowal on the part of an administration Democrat that the Black Re publicans voted to admit Kansas as a slave State or as a free State, as the people of Kansas might desire; and yet the Americans who induced the Republicans to adopt this just and correct posi tion were denounced as Abolitionists! While Southern Democrats charge Southern Americans with treachery to Southern rights in supporting the Crittenden substitute, Northern Democrats ridicule the Republicans for having deserted their pernicious theories and for having adopted Dem ocratic and Southern ground; and the paper which abuse Crittenden and his associates, now publish this vindication of their wise and pcaceful policy. Was ever self-stultification more complete?

TRUE ENOUGH !- The Alexandria Sentinel, a Democratic organ, says that the debates on the subject sufficiently show, "for what opposite reasons members supported and members opposed the English Kansas bill. It was supported bceause it did, and because it did not, submit the Constitution to the vote of the people." All which, as we have ourselves conclusively demonstrated in several previous articles, is as truc as preaching. The Sentinel adds:

"The biil does not submit the Constitution to a vote of the people. But it does submit the amended Schedule to such vote; and the vote on the Schedule may have PRACTICALLY THE EFFECT of a vote on the Constitution."!!

And matter of fact as he is in the matter of taste as to the usual gymnastic exercises of youth. Still more oddly does it sound to hear a govern- his association with Rynders. The reader will he walks erect and firmly and has by ment organ throw out unmistakeable hints that because the President chooses to testify in this peculiar mauner "his appreciation of the beauty and accomplishments" of a Senator's wife, the and accomplishments' of a Senator's wife, the Senator is on that account expected to depart at the President's bidding from all his long cherished principles, to sacrifice personal and political hon or in order to obey that President's behests, and to assist in committing a flagrant outrage upon the rights and liberties of the people. One of the principal faults of Charles II was that he was too apt to testify "his appreciation of the beauty and accomplishments" of the ladies of his court the Whig National Convention on the 16th of by conferring responsible and important offices June, 1852. These dates are nearly four years upon their relatives; but we had no idea that his example would be cmulated in these modern times by the President of the United States .-Charles demanded that the courtiers who received such "substautial" favors as testimonials of his appreciation of their fair kinswomen's charms should knuckle at his bidding; but this is rather too much to look for in Republican America, and appears singular when demanded by a Demoeratic (?) President.

Of course Mr. Cutts' own merits and capacity nad nothing to do with his receiving the appointment. Houcsty and capacity have very little to do with the reception of Federal favors School, convened in New Orleans on the 6th now-a days. Kissing goes by favor, in Executive smiles, as well as in love.

Senator Hunter is certainly the dullest and and statesmanship. The Senator does not know ligious body in the world. exactly what to think of affairs, but we know exactly what to think of him. His mind is wrapt in a fog, and he can't see through it. He is in volved in uncertainties. He does'nt know what tucky charged that Crittenden and Marshall had is to be the result of the Kansas Conference bill, which is apparent to every one clse. It will be perceived, from the following extract from his speech on the Conference report, how very doubt tul and timid the Senator is in the expression of "at least" and "perhaps" until his speech is involved in as much ambiguity as his subject. Hear

> "I believe that the deepest interests of the American people are concerned in adopting some seheme to quiet this question for the present, at least; and if they would adopt this scheme pre sented by the conference committee it is probable. in my opinion, that we should have repose, for a while at least—a repose which, perhaps, might be improved, as I said, into a permanent peace. I believe that by adopting this proposition, the question would pass for a time, at least, out of ederal politics: it would be localized; and when that is done, I think there are interests of magnitude enough to employ the public mind, and to eugage it in a more wholesome manner."

Cute Governor.

The Richmond Whig exposes a plagiarism of Governor Wisc of over half a column in length. Here is didn't mean to deceive anybody by this course of conduct, there being some copies of Hazlitt's leetures in the Old Dominion. It is perfectly evident that Governor Wise only stole this pas sage from Hazlitt in order to fool the Richmond to remember it. Whig into publishing the letter, which contained some severe hits at the party of which the editor of foreign notes of a less denomination than five of the Whig was a member. It contained sounder political philosophy, according to the Governer political philosophy, according to the Govern-or's notion, than had appeared in the Whig for a alter the first day of June next, it shall not be ong time, and there was no way to get it before American readers, except for the Governor to teal a little from Hazlitt, which the Whig might expose and thus be obliged to publish a part of the Governor's speech. The bait took finely. Of course the editor of the Whiq must feel very ridiculous at being eaught in so skillfully plan ned a trap; it was a regular sell.

OBITUARY.

There is something peculiarly mournful in the Inte rupilon so constantly occurring in the ties of earth. After raising our children about us until our very being is bound up in theirs, we often can do nothing more than bless them in the name of our God, and send them to distant homes to ballle with life's storms, and meet them no more on earth. Another separation nore solemn, more heart-rending, because final, as re ards this world, is that caused by death, when he come into our chambers and bears off our most loved and cherished ones. 'tis then the stricken heart feels the ne costly of a strong arm on which to lean, and the sym pathy of Him who wept over the lomb of a friend is most needed. At such times how the question will rise in the minds of the most careless. Was there due preparation for this change, this passing away fro all life's joys and sorrows, by a firm belief and trust h he merits of our divine Redcemer?

These thoughts came up on seeling the announce ment of the death of Mrs. MARTHA S. TAYLOR. An can it be that she with whom we have taken sweet cour sel, and walked together to the house of God for mor than twenty years, is ladeed in the spirit land; she who was always ready to stand up for the cause of Christ. taken away when we felt most like leaning upon an arn of flesh? 'Tis even so. On Sabbath evening at 6 o'clock, and of May, she joined the redeemed spirits in the better land. We are thus confident because we knew much of her christian experience; holding her relation to the church in great self-distrust, in fear and trembling, here was yet a firmness in her religious belief Induced no doubt by her early training. She was for several years of her young life the close attendant of her aged grandparents, Dr. Hinde's and wife, of Newport, Ky. he pioneers of Methodism in that place, and by them her heart was early limbued with the spirit of our hely religion, so that collision with the follies of the world in after life had no power to efface those first impression In September of 1831 she came to our city a bride

SPEECHES AND WRITINGS

-0F-Hon. THOMAS F. MARSHALL,

OF KENTUCKY.

Edited by W. L. Barre, Esq.

1 vol. octavo—Library bladir g, P 1 vol. octavo—Ilalf-calf antique, With a fine steel plate of Mr. Marshall.

THE above work contains about all of Mr. Marshall's anest efforts since 1e32.

As a popular orator of unrivated powers and a writer of unsurpassed ability Mr. Marshall stands foremost among the most prominent men of his day. The great reputation he has acquired, both as a spe ker and a writer, his ong and active identity with and complete knowledge of the political and social history of our country, have created a wide spread desire to see his numerous speeches and writings on various subjects, in a permanent form; and, to meet this desire and to add a valuable contribution to the standard literature of our own country, we have spared neither pains nor expense to prepare the work in the highest style of the art.

The literary taste and ability of the editor are sufficiently known and appreciated to require no remarks from us. He has carefully prepared appropriate headings, explanatory of each article in the work, and a highly interesting biographical sketch of Mr. Marshall.

Dear Sir:—Having disposed of our Printing Office in Elizabethtown, Ky., and removed to Glasgow with the view of permanently locating we purpose commencing the publication of a newspaper sometime during the most of February, to be entitled "THE GLASGOW FREE PRESS." It will be devoted to General Literature, Politics, Agriculture, the Arisand Sciences, News, and especially to the promotion and advancement of the local and general auterests of the town and county, and those adjacent. No pains or exertion on our part will be intermitted to secure due consideration for all local enterprises, that may be calculated to advance the general weal of the community.

An earnest effort will be made to render it a valuable family newspaper, acceptable to all parties, combining a variety of interesting and instructive subjects in its columns. Having had considerable experience in the business, and being practically familiar with its mechanical duties, we indulge the hope that we shall be eabled to subserve to some extent, the interests to which the "Fear Praces" will be descent timo, may be said were your briefly. We are conscientiously opposed to the practices and the precepts of Modera Democracy. The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the nwful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their natac, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.), and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will farmish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in his sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great beaefit to the nfflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much desplaced cause.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE. DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.

DEFIANCE is a rich mahogony bay; 15½ hands high; with heavy black made and tail; possessing fine bone; great length, and oxtraordinary gayety; and presenting in his appearance, a remarkable combination of the thorough bred with the harness horse.

He was sired by old Defiance, who was the sire of Lady Moscow, and Inaumerable other frotting celebrities. His dam. (Matilda Minks.) herself very celebrated both for trotting and pacing, was a Canadian mare of the most select breed. Old Defiance was by Cock of the Rock; he by Duroc; he by old Messenger. Cock of the Rock was full brother in blood to American Eclipse.

DEFIANCE was purchased from his breeder in Canada last fall as a stock horse, both on account of his great perfection of form, color, gayety, natural speed, and graceful action, and for the high character and reputation of the stock from which he is both directly and remotely descended. He was exhibited in the fast ring at the Baltimore Fair, six weeks after his me tast ring at the Battimore rair, six weeks after his arrival, and, without any training, went his mile lu? minutes 46 seconds, taking the second premium. I am standing him at this low rate on secount of the hard times, with the purpose of laducing farmers geaerally to lunprove the character of the horse stock of the country, being well assured that an horse in the State will contribute more to that end.
